

Strategic Thinking - Looking to the Future

Do you want to nurture your thinking skills?

Do you know thinking skills helps to promote your leadership skill?

Do you know how to show your leadership skills when reaching out the market and meeting the clients?

Introduction

Often the biggest block to defining a vision for the future is the grim reality of the present! So, we take away the block and open thinking to a future that is so much better and brighter than the here and now. We then 'sanity check' it to make sure it's a sound vision. Just to make sure that the future is challenging enough we look at the goals or targets that will measure success along the way. We use a quick, fun and competitive exercise to encourage Strategic Thinking provide delegates to stretch their goals enough to provide a real challenge. This program helps the team to gear the right mindset to be ready to meet the challenging, dynamic and volatile market.

Program Objectives

This program aims to

- Encourage strategic thinking skills among leaders
- Prepare leaders with skills to think out of the box
- Prepare the employees to formulate the team to be ready in term of mindset and attitude to face the market.

Learning Outcomes

By the end of this course, the participants will be able to:

- Identify the issues rather than the positions that are surrounding them.
- Identify the needed route and tools to achieve their objectives.
- Prepare a milestone based strategic plan for specific objectives.

Who should attend?

Professionals who are involved in industries such as business management, human resource, marketing, negotiation, politics, legitimization, communication, human relationships, and those who simply want to be introduced to the essential of milestone-based planning.

Program Outline

Time	Day One
9.00am – 10.30am	A Strategic Model We will introduce a simple strategic model that can be used in any organisation. You'll then get to practice applying the model to your organisation or maybe even your life!
10.30am-11.00am	Morning Break
11.00am-12.00pm	Advanced Strategic Model We will introduce a more complicated strategic model that can be used in any organisation. This would involve even thorough analysis.
12.00pm-1.00pm	Understanding the now In order to begin to plan how to strategically move towards the future, it's useful to understand what is going on internally and outside in the wider world - big. Some things may have a big impact on future plans so it's wise to take a look at what they might be and what effect they might have on the vision.
1.00pm-2.00pm	Lunch
2.00pm-3.30pm	Ideas and more ideas for Decisions So, we now know where we are heading and where we are starting from. To get off the starting blocks we need some innovative ideas. We will look at applying some creative concepts to generating ideas that will fulfil the company's strategic goals.
3.30pm-4.00pm	Tea Break
4.00pm-5.00pm	Ideas and more ideas for Decisions Having lots of ideas is usually a blessing but can be a curse if decision making is not a strong point. We offer practical techniques for effective decision making and risk assessment

Day Two
9.00am – 10.30am	Strategic Thinking - Plotting a course There are many ways of going about drawing up a plan. In this exercise, delegates will try to that start to make the strategy real. We will also offer up facilitation techniques for dealing with those people who can't help looking on the bleak side.
10.30am-11.00am	Morning Break
11.00am-12.00pm	Getting it done and getting there One of the weaknesses of strategic thinking is when no-one takes on the 'doing' bit. So, we look at practical ways of making sure things happen and making sure that all bits of the organization are pulling together. In the final section of the day, we will give delegates the opportunity to bring forward any issues particularly anything that might get in the way of them implementing their strategic plans.
12.00pm-1.00pm	The Manager as a Team-builder You would be able to explain the differences between group and teams. Identify characteristics of effective and ineffective teams. Discuss the roles of a manager in building teams. Identify five conflict resolution strategies
