MUNIR MOHD NAWI

Dato' Haji Munir Mohd Nawi is a distinguished professional with an extensive career in the fisheries industry, spanning over three decades. His professional journey includes pivotal roles such as Director-General of Fisheries in Malaysia, where he showcased exceptional leadership and management capabilities. His expertise extends internationally, as evidenced by his active participation in numerous seminars, workshops, and meetings related to agriculture and fisheries across various countries. Dato' Haji Munir's commitment and contributions have been recognized through prestigious awards, including the Anugerah Perkhidmatan Cemerlang and the Darjah Indera Mahkota Pahang, reflecting his outstanding service and dedication to the field. His educational background is equally impressive, with degrees in Fisheries and Ocean Sciences, as well as Human Resource Development from reputable Malaysian universities. Throughout his career, he has made significant contributions to the industry, including research, writing, and advisory roles, solidifying his reputation as a distinguished figure in the fisheries sector. Dato' Haji Munir's wealth of experience, coupled with his remarkable achievements and international engagements, positions him as a highly respected and influential leader in the field of fisheries and agriculture.